Welcome to the November 2009 edition of the Radio HF Internet Newsletter. I'd like to wish all of our U.S. subscribers a very happy Thanksgiving coming up on November 26th. Also to anyone with those in your family who have served their countries in the military, we join with all of you remembering them and their service on November 11th on Remembrance/Veterans/Armistice Day.

Believe it or not Christmas and the end of 2009 are coming up quickly. Once again this year Radio HF can help you out with gifts for the radio enthusiast in your family. However, if you need an item in time for Christmas please don't delay. Get your orders in as soon as possible to avoid disappointment on Christmas morning. For those in the family not sure of what item to purchase, an easy solution would be a Radio HF gift certificate. They are available in any denomination and can be redeemed at any time. Please contact me for details on ordering Radio HF gift certificates.

Our Monthly Special Zone features sites dealing with Veterans/Remembrance Day, Aviation History Month, the Great American Smoke-Out and U.S. Thanksgiving.

Our virtual voyage around the world, in the "Where in the World Zone", takes us to the United Arab Emirates in the Middle East. The United Arab Emirates is a federation of seven emirates situated in the southeast of the Arabian Peninsula in Southwest Asia on the Arabian Gulf, bordering Oman and Saudi Arabia. The UAE consists of seven states, termed emirates, which are Abu Dhabi, Dubai, Sharjah, Ajman, Umm al-Quwain, Ras al-Khaimah and Fujairah. The capital and second largest city of the United Arab Emirates is Abu Dhabi. It is also the country's center of political, industrial and cultural activities. Before 1971, the UAE were known as the Trucial States or Trucial Oman, in reference to a nineteenth-century truce between Britain and several Arab Sheikhs. The name Pirate Coast was also used in reference to the area's emirates in the 18th to early 20th century.

Enjoy the month of November and we'll get together again for the special Christmas/end of year edition of the Newsletter in December.

MW LIST

http://www.mwlist.org/ul_login.php?sprache=en

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

Conditions in North America for overseas longwave and mediumwave reception have been exceptional for the last few weeks. This site provides a radio station database of all Longwave (LW), Medium wave (MW) and Tropical bands stations worldwide. You can browse frequency and location lists, search for stations, and get technical information. If you register, you can use a online logbook, create bandscans, and provide update information to the database editors. This is a free, open and non-commercial hobby project which depends on the cooperation of many individuals.

RADIO INTELLIGENCER

http://radiointel.net/

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

Ulis Fleming, of Odenton, Maryland together with two colleagues, has now released Version 2.0 of this excellent resource for radio enthusiasts. Explore through the pages of radio news, equipment and accessory reviews, and much more. This is a great work in progress.

DIGIPAN

http://www.digipan.net/

VIA Dave Twiggs, Bristol, Connecticut

I just had a little fun using my ham station on DXing broadcast split frequencies. The radio is connected to the soundcard of my PC using a standard 1/8" audio cable between the radio's external speaker jack and the PC's soundcard microphone input jack. Digipan is a freeware program. Digipan has a real neat "waterfall" display which tracks down the PC screen. When I put my radio in the CW mode and tuned to an am broadcast station the waterfall displays a bright yellow line against a blue background. As I tuned down the band I stopped on each frequency that showed a carrier on it. Beside all the US even channel frequencies I was also seeing carriers trans-Atlantic split frequencies. Some of these were loud and showed up as bright yellow lines while others were barely visible against the background. For those who want more info on this soundcard program there are some demo videos on YouTube, just search PSK31 for them.

MUSEUM OF BROADCAST COMMUNICATIONS

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

The methods used to distribute audio content to consumers are undergoing unprecedented change. Technically and socially there have been seismic shifts in when, where and how consumers receive audio content. However, on Radio Syndication Talk we will continue to keep the news and conversation narrow and focused on syndicated radio, network radio and the personalities, shows and events that impact national terrestrial radio. Feel free to comment on any posts or articles and suggest topics that you find of interest at radiosyndication.talk@...

THE GENERAL ZONE

FOLLOW THE MEDIA

http://followthemedia.com/

VIA Mike Terry, U.K. via Glenn Hauser's DX Listening Digest

Follow The Media is a thoughtful journalistic access-point for media professionals, concentrating on the complex global media world. Our principal writers each have more than 30 years experience in different aspects of media on both sides of the Atlantic. At least one major, original article is posted daily along with short-takes on current media news and follow-up on major media themes. We cover media issues worldwide, concentrating on Europe and North America. What happens on one side of the Atlantic often impacts on the other side and always offers important lessons. In addition we keep a close watch on Asia, particularly China, the Middle East and Africa regions with expanding media influence on the entire world. We keep up to date through many, mostly local, highly qualified resources.

THE BERLIN WALL

http://www.the-berlin-wall.de/

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

Believe it or not we are celebrating the 20th anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall this week. Built in 1961, the Berlin Wall is the single most important symbol of Germany's former division. Torn down, demolished, donated to museums and universities around the world, and sold as souvenirs - the wall almost disappeared from the city's landscape.
Die-Berliner-Mauer.de will assist you in your journey through the history of the Wall and help you to discover the last remaining pieces of this most visible embodiment of the cold war.
